Comprehensive solutions for health care providers

Own brand

Being a producer of a wide range of disposable medical devices, the Company has been continuously developing its own brand since 2008. The brand is based on high quality, reasonable price and reliable customer service. Zarys is one of the leading producers of dressings as well as surgical drapes and sets. Recently the Company has also started to supply disposable medical devices for general medicine. The company's aim is to become one of the leading suppliers of medical devices in Europe and brand awareness is the key to achieve the desired effects.

Export

Sales expansion to East-Central Europe markets along with developing export in other directions fall into the Company's strategy of own brand promotion not only in the Polish market. Apart from direct contacts with foreign partners, Zarys brand's presence is expressed in frequent participation in international exhibitions such as Medica or Arab Health.
